Mobs against Law.

The Dalles Journal objects to our condemnation of those whom we cannot help regarding as being responsible for the lawless violence in Eastern cities, and seems rather disposed to charge the fault on the Government, because it sought to enforce an unpopular law. Our answer to this is in the words of the Boston Post, which never forgets its imagined duty to the Democratic party. Referring to the Enrollment law, it says:

"However unpopular this law may be in any of its sanctions, it is the law of the land, and, as such, it must be enforced if it is not loyally obeyed. If the law is constitutional, as we believe it to be, it has a right to claim the voluntary obedience of every citizen until it is repealed. If it be unconstitutional, the Courts are open and justice can be sought at their hands. There is no other alternative. There ought to be no other in a free government."

And only two years ago, even Fernando Wood—the guilty cause of the recent trouble and bloodshed—said in a public speech in New York:

"I throw myself entirely into this contest, with all my power and with all my might. . . . We must stand by the government, we must obey the laws, we must respect official authority, we must respond with alacrity to the calls of patriotism, and so long as we may have the strength, support the Constitution and the Union. I have no hesitation in throwing whatever power I may possess in behalf the pending struggle.

I am prepared to say here, and through the press to our friends of the South, that before that (rebel) flag shall float over the national capitol, every man, woman and child would enlist for the war."

The above ought to satisfy the Journal, and though it may not be sorry to see what it terms an oppressive law resisted by mobs, yet we are confident that by far the great majority of its own party does not and never will excuse such an outrage upon law and order. No government, no good citizen will for an instant hesitate to put down in the most determined and thorough manner every demonstration of the sort, for thus only can the majesty of constitutional law be preserved, and popular rights be protected. And it makes no difference whether laws seem oppressive, or their enforcement appears needless: the right of judging in the last respect belongs to those only who execute the law, and when they decide to act, the whole force of the country, if need be, should cheerfully and promptly be employed in aiding them. If Gov. Seymour did this, he did his duty; but if he temporized or hesitated, he perhaps unwittingly caused the sacrifice of a hundred lives, where only the loss of one would have been sufficient, by energetic and decided action on his part.

The Murder of Mr. Hamilton Campbell.—The following particulars of this tragic event have been handed to us for publication, as they will doubtless be of interest to a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this State, where Mr. Campbell resided for many years.

At the time of his murder he was superintendent of the Teramurra mine, situated about 150 miles from Guaymas, and owned by Robt. Campbell, a Mexican named Neuratta and another person. Mr. R. Campbell had gone to the mountains on a prospecting tour, leaving the superintendent in charge, and as the latter did not understand Spanish, Neuratta was requested to furnish him with some reliable workmen, and two peons were sent as such. One of those Mr. C. had occasion to send on an errand to San Antonio, about 6 miles from the mine, and during his absence the murder was committed by the other peon. This occurred on Friday, June 12, in the afternoon. Mr. Campbell at the time was kneeling down by a large jar of water, in which he was washing and assorting silver ore, with the intention of sending it for assay to San Francisco, when the cowardly assassin, standing behind him, struck him on the head with a steel bar, crushing the skull in a frightful manner. Death must have been instantaneous, as only one blow was struck. The murderer then robbed his victim, taking from his pockets between forty and fifty dollars and a pistol, and escaped to them ountains. The only motive was plunder, as there could have been no cause for revenge. The other peon, on his return the next morning, discovered the body, and having procured assistance, carried it to San Antonio, where it was buried under the supervision and charge of the American residents, in the ground attached to the church there. Before the steamer left Guaymas for San Francisco, it was reported that the murderer had been arrested and executed.

Prices Current in Cariboo.—From a letter from a friend at Williams' Creek, British Columbia, we take the following prices of provisions, &c., ruling there on the 22d June, 1863: Flour, 90c. per lb; Bacon, $1 50; Oregon Hams, $1 75; Dried Apples, $1 50; Dried Plums, $2; Dried Peaches, $1 50; Tobacco, $5; Beef, 40c.; Tea, $2 50; Coffee, $1 25; Sugar, $1 25; Beans, 75c.; Butter, $2; Cheese, $2; Soap, $1; Raisins, $1 50; Pepper, per bottle $1 50; Oregon knit Socks, $2 per pair; Boots, $15; Shoes, $5; Picks, with handles, $9; Long handled Shovels, $12; Gum Boots, $30.

Burial of a Loyal Mississippian at West Point.—A most interesting ceremony took place at West Point on the 4th of June. The gallant Colonel Benjamin F. Davis, a Mississippian, of the regular army, "among the faithless, faithful found," although his State seceded and his most intimate friends proved disloyal, adhering to the cause of the Union, having accepted a commission as colonel of the Eighth New York cavalry, fell a short time before, in leading a brigade to the charge in a cavalry engagement on the Rappahannock. His family residing in seceded States, no other place was found so suitable for the interment of his remains as the cemetery of the Military Academy there—for he had no other home within the part of the Union now loyal. He was originally appointed a cadet from the State of Alabama in 1850; he graduated in 1854, and had served with distinction in the campaign in New Mexico, before the outbreak of the present war.

The body was taken to West Point by order of the Secretary of War, and the funeral occurred with all the honors of military form, after the morning service in the trophy-adorned chapel. The cadets were present with full ranks, besides a numerous congregation of visitors, and the services conducted by Rev. Mr. French, chaplain of the post, were very impressive. The funeral procession preceded by the splendid band of the Military Academy, discoursing appropriate music, was composed of a corps of cadets and a company of regulars, with arms reversed, preceding the hearse, which was followed by the now riderless horse. Thus were preserved the formalities attached to military funerals from the earliest times. Arrived at the cemetery, after an impressive prayer, the body was lowered into the earth, and three volleys were fired over the grave. Then the loyal and brave warrior was left to rest, in the bosom of his Alma Mater, whom he had never learned to forget, to whose glorious flag he was ever faithful.

Strange Delay in Enforcing the Draft.—Many of the Eastern papers which are usually the most ardent defenders of the Administration and its measures, are very much displeased at the neglect to enforce the conscription before the recent raids.

The Cincinnati Commercial says—"If the President had proceeded, as soon as the Enrollment Act became a law, to take the most rapid measures for its enforcement, the conscription would have been over before this time, our veteran regiments filled up, and no necessity anywhere for additional men. But he listened to the timid counsels of calculating politicians and to gentlemen of sanguine expectations, who thought that we had soldiers enough and that there was no need of the draft. And now, just before harvest in the great Middle States, there is a sudden consciousness of danger, developed in the usual form, and one hundred thousand men are called for to serve a temporary purpose. We have had too much of this ineffective patchwork business. The nine months regiments raised last summer, at an enormous expense, performed very inadequate service, and at last returned home when they were needed as sharply as when called. In the West we avoided raising regiments for a single campaign, and our armies are not broken in organization and dispirited by the return of troops whose term of service has expired. Our full quota, under every call of the President, up to that for sixty-day men, has been raised. There are more than twenty Ohio regiments and batteries, of the three-years men, in the armies about Washington. There is no enemy in force approaching our State. We are, therefore, bound to question the necessity, and so, the justice and expediency of calling upon Ohio for thirty thousand men, to leave the ripening harvest-fields for a sixty-day campaign. We cannot do Pennsylvania any good just now. Before our thirty thousand men can be raised and sent to her, the mischief will be done. We must be prepared to defend ourselves, in case there should be a formidable rebel advance upon us, but it is terrible profligacy to waste our resources in spasmodic efforts, that seem rather to result from vague alarms than to be determined by a clear and comprehensive sagacity; and at the same time neglect the vital business of adding to the strength of our serviceable armies. Sixty and ninety-day men are only beginning to be of some account as soldiers about the time they are discharged, and, unless in extreme emergencies, it is a waste of labor, money and time, to call them out. Let the President enforce the conscription promptly, without flinching, and raise all the troops wanted, and let him remember that every day's delay in performing this imperative duty, multiplies difficulties.

West Point Military Academy.—The annual examination has recently closed, and the Report of the Board has been published. It recommends several important changes in the present system, among which are the following:

First, the abolition of Congressional patronage in appointments to the academy, and the introduction in lieu thereof of a system of competitive examinations in the several States, whereby of all young men offering themselves those possessing the best qualifications will be admitted to the privileges of the academy. This is the plan in point of fact adopted by Mr. Rice in Massachusetts, and Mr. Sickles in New York, in filling the appointments from their respective districts.

Second, to fill up the academy at once to its full number, namely 400. At present it is scarcely half full.

Third, to elevate the standard of admission, whereby practically one year may be gained in the course of instruction here, and so much added to its effective results.

Some other suggestions are made, such as an increase of the number of professors upon the staff of instruction, etc. Should these recommendations be adopted by Congress, it is believed that the utility and efficiency of the institution will be very greatly increased, and the appropriations made in its behalf will be rendered productive of the very largest benefit.

The California Christian Advocate says the New York riot is the legitimate result of the teachings of Fernando Wood and his class of Democrats.

Contributions to the Sanitary Fund.—The Vancouver Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society sent by the last steamer to Rev. Dr. Bellows, the sum of $470. I have also received and forwarded from the Port Angeles, (W. T.) Library Association, by hand of Messrs. Watson and Abbott, of Olympia, $40, and from E. L. Quimby, Esq., of Multnomah Co., $20.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

Dates to July 23d.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The following has been received:

VICKSBURG, July 18.—To Gen. Halleck:—Johnston evacuated Jackson on the 16th. The rebels are in full retreat. Sherman says most of Johnston's army must perish from heat and want of water. They have to a great extent deserted or scattered through the country.

(Signed) GRANT.

CINCINNATI, July 22.—Morgan with about 500 men, encamped at McArthursville, Vinton county, last night. At half past 4 o'clock this morning he was a mile from Athens, on the Marietta and Cincinnati road.

CINCINNATI, July 22d.—Morgan passed through Nelsonville at 10 A. M., closely pursued by our forces. His intentions seem to be to reach the Ohio at a point above good navigation and cross into Virginia. The authorities have made such arrangements as to effectually checkmate and capture him and his followers.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Letters from Rosecrans' army dated July 14th, reports the army again in motion. The enemy's rear had been shelled, but no fighting had occurred. The rebels appear excited, throwing away large quantities of ammunition, clothing, etc., as they retreat. Their force is estimated at 15,000 infantry and 35,000 cavalry.

CAIRO, July 22.—Vicksburg advices say Farragut's boats started down the Mississippi. They are destined to a new field of operations, probably Mobile.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Republican has the following: From the best information it appears that Lee's army is near Winchester or above that point, while our army is in such a position that he cannot go back to Richmond without fighting at disadvantage. The rebel General is either holding his position to gather supplies from the crops in the valley, or with such reinforcements as he may obtain, give battle or a series of battles to the Army of the Potomac. Our army is ready to fight him, and anxious indeed, rather than return to another campaign in those districts in Virginia which have been devastated by war.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Tribune's Harper's Ferry letter of the 21st, says the main body of our army is 25 miles south of Berlin, with no present appearance of a forward movement. It is not impossible that it will return to Berlin. Lee's army lies between Martinsburg and Winchester; his pickets occupy the Potomac river from Cherry Run, thirteen miles west of Martinsburg, to Harper's Ferry. On Tuesday night they drove in our pickets at the Ferry. They are also in force at Shepherdstown, Martinsburg and Charlestown.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The official statement of the total amount of public debt up to July 1st, is $1,097,274,365.

Latest intelligence from the Potomac places both armies across the river, watching each other—the rebels on the west side and the Federals on the east side of the Blue Ridge.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Creole, from New Orleans, has arrived with dates to the 16th. The Era says Col. Chickering, Provost Marshal at Port Hudson, has sent to New Orleans a large number of prisoners, including all commissioned officers, who are not to be paroled.

Letters state that the brigades of Generals Weitzel and Dudley, under Gen. Grover, left Port Hudson on the evening of July 9th and went to Donaldsonville to clean out a rebel battery there. When a few miles from there, the 30th Massachusetts regiment, being in advance, was suddenly attacked and 150 men killed and wounded, and three pieces captured.

Every effort will be made by Gen. Banks to recapture Brashear City and the Opelousas railroad. At last accounts the enemy were reported falling back beyond Bayou Lafourche. An expedition is said to have gone by the river. The gunboat Sciota was sunk in the Mississippi by collision with the Antonia. The squadron at Galveston destroyed three schooners and 300 bales of cotton in Galveston Bay.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Exchange 137½@138; Gold 126.

What has been Accomplished.—The month of July thus far has been a crisis for the Jeff. Davis conspiracy, and a perfect avalanche of victories for the Union. Over 80,000 prisoners have been taken by the Federal forces, and the rebel ranks decimated by over 20,000 more killed and wounded—making in all 100,000 men, besides 50,000 stand of arms and 200 cannon at Vicksburg, with commissary stores and ammunition in great quantities, and cannon, arms and stores at Port Hudson. Add to this the demoralization of Bragg's army, and the thousands that have left it in disgust, and are now in the mountains of Tennessee; the rout of Lee's army, and the probability of its capture or of its being cut to pieces before it can reach Richmond; the taking of Morris Island; the rout of Johnston by General Sherman; the defeat of Price at Helena, together with minor successes of the Federal arms, and we think it about enough glory for the short space of half a month. Davis stated in his speech in Mississippi that the fall of Vicksburg would be the ruin of the Southern Confederacy, and we are inclined to think that he was about right, and that the treason hatched abomination denominated "Southern Confederacy" is about played out. North Carolina is preparing to leave the rotten concern; Louisiana is ready to step back into the Union; Tennessee will take her place among the loyal States in a few short months; and the poor bastard conspiracy of Jeff. Davis & Co. will be left to struggle in its death agonies alone. When the early frosts shall come, Union armies will pierce the very center of the cotton States, and give the finishing blow to the vitals of the rebellion.

Worth Knowing.—For the same price as you generally pay for a suit of slop clothing, Heuston, Hastings, & Co., the celebrated Tailors and Clothiers of Montgomery street, corner of Sutter, San Francisco, will forward you an outfit that will give you satisfaction as to style, quality and workmanship. If you are unable to visit the city, send your measure, and they will send you garments that will fit; or, if you do not mind waiting, they will send on to their New York house, and the goods will be delivered to you made to order, in sixty days, without extra charge.

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, nor do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates it from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you need a speedy and effectual cure [illegible] scientific [illegible] of disease? Dull.—There has been no case worthy mention brought up for trial in the Justi Courts for a fortnight past. We are dee impressed with the conviction that our tices might spend a long vacation somewh during the hot weather, without in any w neglecting their duties. Every other bran of business is in an equally lively conditi Merchants dispose themselves in comforta attitudes in their stores, without the least prehension of disturbance by purchaser and Manager Waldron assured us not lo ago, in perfect confidence, that even his luc tive speculations might wear a more cheer and profitable aspect. The only activity d played yesterday was occasioned by an e raged Celestial, whom we perceived vigorou pursuing a famished cur that had abstracte his (the Celestial's) supper from a neighb ing trap. Indeed, the entire city is apparen ly laboring under a debilitated hope th something will speedily turn up.

Moderating.—The weather yesterday w much pleasanter than for the past few day and pedestrianism was not accompanied the moisty discomforts of Sunday and Mo day. The thermometer at noon indicated 9 in the shade, and at 4 o'clock it had fallen 82½°.

Arrived.—The bark William A. Bank arrived yesterday from Nanaimo. Her carg consisted of 490 tons of coal, consigned Messrs. Leonard & Green.

The Steamer Wilson G. Hunt brough only about $2000 in gold dust to Wells, Fargo & Co., on her arrival from the Cascade last evening. There was also a quantity o dust in the hands of passengers.

Investment.—There are now advertised fo sale six fine lots of ground, situated on the west side of the public square, and are the most pleasantly situated in Portland. They now comprise one of the finest orchards in the State, and are owned by Thos. Pritchard, Esq. We would call the attention of the County Commissioners to this as an eligible site for the proposed new Court-house.

Late Papers.—We return our acknowledgements to Mr. S. J. McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, for his courtesy in furnishing us with late New York pictorials an other papers.

The Theater.—The drama of the "Rag Picker of Paris" and the farce of "The Doorkeeper" were the advertised pieces for las evening, but owing to the exceedingly smal attendance the manager concluded to postpone the performance, and dismissed the audience. To-morrow evening Mr. Waldron will receive a grand complimentary benefit, on which occasion one of the most interesting dramas of the age will be produced—"Fraud and its Victims, or the Poor of London." As Mr. Waldron will undoubtedly have an overflowing house, we should advise all who intend taking their families to make an early application at the box office.

DR. D. JAYNES'
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and [illegible]

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,

[illegible] CONSUMPTION, many of whom [illegible] that they should be allowed [illegible] to remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER UWCHLAN, Chester Co, Pa, Sept 15, 1859.
Dr. D. JAYNE.—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured. NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.
H. W. TINELLI, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem your servant and friend, J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co. O., May 31, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well. J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co, Pa, July 25, 1863.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Dear sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 20 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can but sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Three Words of Strength.

BY SCHILLER.

There are three lessons I would write—
Three words as with a burning pen,
In tracings of eternal light,
Upon the hearts of men.

Have Hope. Though clouds environ now,
And gladness hides her face in scorn,
Put thou the shadow from thy brow—
No night but hath its morn.

Have Faith. Where'er thy bark is driven—
The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth—
Know this: God rules the hosts of heaven,
The inhabitants of earth.

Have Love. Not love alone for one,
But man as man thy brother call,
And scatter like the circling sun
Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul—
Hope, Faith and Love—and thou shalt find
Strength when life's surges rudest roll,
Light when thou else wert blind.

PREACHING A PRACTICAL SERMON.—A number of years ago, Parson B—— preached in a town in the interior of this State. A sound theologian was Parson B——, as a published volume of his sermons evinces; but like many clergymen of the past generation, he was too much given to preaching "doctrinal sermons," to the exclusion of practical themes; at least so thought one of his parishioners, Mr. C——.

"Mr. B——," said he one day to the clergyman, "we know all about the doctrines by this time. Why don't you preach real practical discourses?"

"O, very well. If you wish it, I will do so. Next Sunday I will preach a practical sermon."

Sunday morning came, and an unusually large audience, attracted by the report of the promised novelty, were in attendance. The parson announced his text; 'opening his subject,' he said he should make a practical application to his hearers.

He then commenced at the head of the aisle, calling each member of the congregation by name, and pointing out his special faults.

One was a little inclined to indulge in creature comforts, another was a terrible man at a bargain, and so on. While in mid-volley, the door of the church opened, and Dr. S—— entered.

'There,' went on the parson, 'there is Dr. S—— coming in, in the middle of services, just as usual, and disturbing the whole congregation. He does it just to make people believe that he can't get time to come to church in season, but it isn't so—he has not been called to visit a patient on a Sunday morning for three months.'

Thus went on the worthy clergyman. At last he came to Mr. C——, who had requested a practical sermon.

'And now, there is Mr. C——; he's a merchant—what does he do? Why, he stays at home on Sunday afternoons to write business letters. If he gets a lot of goods up from New York on Saturday night, he goes to the store and marks them on Sunday, so as to have them all ready for sale on Monday morning. That's how he keeps the Sabbath; and he isn't satisfied with doctrinal sermons; he wants practical ones!'

At the conclusion of the services the parson walked up to Mr. C——, and asked him how he liked the 'practical sermon.'

'Mr. B——,' was the reply, 'preach what you please after this. I'll never attempt to direct you again.'

'DEGRADED.'—The first families of negrodom—the haughty chivalry of the South, the cotton lords, and slave lords of the fertile valley have been whipped within their own fortresses, at the 'profession of arms,' which belongs only to born gentlemen, by a Lowell mill boy—a Northern mud-sill, an abolition, mackerel-catching, clock-peddling, wooden nutmeg Yankee. It was nothing for the armed 'Democracy' of Vicksburg to surrender to Grant, the Western man, and leader of Western troops; but for the armed 'Democracy' of Port Hudson to surrender 'unconditionally' to the Yankee school-master, Banks, who has gone down to teach them manners, was a terrible degradation—if we may put faith in the dissertations of the organs of the slave oligarchy. And the more so when we consider the fact that Banks had only Northern mud-sills—the 'scum of society,' regular mackerels themselves, under his command. And yet the one-to-fivesters succumbed! How are the mighty fallen—but only to rise again wiser and better men. They sorely needed the lesson which this war is teaching them. Butler and Grant and Banks are tutors whose memories the children of the present rebels in the Mississippi States should and will love and revere for saving them from a fate which their foolish fathers would have fixed upon them.—Sac. Bee.

MORE COTTON FROM UTAH.—The Omaha Nebraskian recently noticed the arrival there of four hundred wagons loaded with Mormon cotton. In its issue of June 26th it says:

Six tons more of cotton arrived in this city yesterday, direct from Utah Territory, to be shipped thence to New York to be marketed. This last supply is called church cotton or tithings. It is raised in Southern Utah, about four hundred miles south of Salt Lake city. That portion of the Territory is described to us by a gentleman just from there as being one of the richest and most productive sections of country on the continent. As a fruit country it is unsurpassed. Peaches grow most delicious, grapes and vines of all kinds grow luxuriantly and bear most abundantly. Figs and oranges are cultivated with much success. The climate in that portion of the Territory is extremely mild, scarcely any winter at all. The cotton that has been raised averages from three to five hundred pounds to the acre. The Mormons are about the most independent people on the earth.

'THE RIGHT PLATFORM.'—The New York Herald thinks that 'the right platform' for all loyal men of every party is that of Gerrit Smith—'Put down the rebellion.' The editor says that, truly in this case, 'the stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.' The man who has been the most ultra on the slavery question, is now willing to sacrifice all his life long principles if, by so doing, the Union is saved. 'The platform of the War Democracy, adds the Herald, is 'a vigorous prosecution of the war;' whilst that of the Copperheads is 'a vigorous prosecution of peace.' 'Put down the rebellion' should be the rallying cry of all who are truly loyal to their country, and let all mere party or sectional considerations or interests be cast to the winds until we have 'Put down the rebellion.'

GENERAL BURNSIDE.—The Louisville Journal, on becoming acquainted with Gen. Burnside, is constrained to set the following judgment up against the flood of abuse poured out upon him:

Burnside looks and acts like a great man; and the manner in which he has managed the affairs of this Department, shows him to be a statesman as well as a General. The more we see of Burnside the more we like him.—He has done much for Kentucky. His order No. 38 has worked like a charm, and has given peace, quiet and security to many persons of the State which have been invested by rebel sympathizers and marauders. Previous to its publication, many parts of the State were infested by Morgan's men and other rebels, whose presence brought fear and terror, but since the enforcement there are none to be found within our lines, except a few desperate characters who come and go secretly, to act the spy—and those are caught whenever found, and executed.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
